

Kelly Clancy is the Regional Manager, Government Relations for Kaiser Permanente Southern California Permanente Medical Group. She has over 10 years of experience working in health policy. In her role, Kelly works directly with the Chief Government Relations Officer to support, educate, and communicate with the physician leads at the medical centers. Kelly assists with the legislative bill review process, coordinates the annual conference, as well as create annual year in review publication highlight government relations activity in the community.

In her previous role, Kelly served as Program Administrator at Children’s Hospital Los Angeles where she was responsible for developing educational curriculum to train healthcare professional with the knowledge and skills necessary to understand the legislative process and communicate with state and local legislators.

Kelly received her undergraduate degree from University of California, Davis and her Masers of Public Administration from California State University, Long Beach.