Health System Management

- Longitudinal curriculum with exposure to different practice options, office management, financial planning, interview skills, etc.
- Ongoing feedback on utilization of resources: radiology, consults, lab, medications, etc.
- One block preceptorship in the 3rd year to explore practice options and understand practice management in an outside office setting